And in that case he's the first ever government leader from the ZPT. This has indeed been a weird month in the history of Talossa :)

Max was only Seneschál of Talossa for a short time; however, he has left his mark on the nation. Max is to be commended for a job well done, seeing the Kingdom through a major crisis. Despite many obstacles, Max was able to rally a qualified and dedicated Cabinet around him. Max's energy and innovative ideas will serve Talossa well in the future.

I am willing to work with the new government and I feel very strongly that this compromise agreement will bring peace and stability to Talossa. I look forward to Max serving as Seneschál once again when the opportunity presents itself.

That's the best straight line I've seen in years. I can't tell you how difficult it is to let it go by.

Aaarrgh... no, no, no, won't do it. Must contain self. Contain. Restrain. Bite firmly down on the gag reflex. Think about baseball. Horses. Streets.

How could he have any high points? He wasn't in office long enough to accomplish anything.

I'm fairly certain that the Opposition expected truly bad things from Maxime. Did anything like that happen? No. I think the worst thing anyone could accuse Max of is that he was an average PM, and I think that's due to his lack of time in office. Max did try to make things work.

I believe it says much about Max's character that he's stepping down. Yes, the Opposition was unilaterally opposed to Max as PM, but nowhere in the OrgLaw does it say everyone has to like the PM. We now know that Jeff's early ouster was due to an unfortunate albeit large misunderstanding. The MN and ZPT knew it would be a point of contention, but we did not foresee all the deep personal problems that occurred.

Max is committed to Talossa and Talossans; that is why he is stepping down. He has accepted the agreement in his best interest and in Talossa's. We in the MN applaud him for this. We support him in this decision and we will support him in the future.

We look forward to participating in a National Unity Government!

To be technical, Max, there is no announcement that Jeff was sworn in yet, therefore Gary is still acting PM. There is no PD announcing changes in the Cabinet, so the government hasn't changed yet. I supposed it's coming, but until it occurs the government continue to run by the current government.

Thanksgiving is Action de Grace; look in the official French/English translation. I live in Nova Scotia and we call it Thanksgiving. In Canada, we celebrate it the second Monday of October, while in the USA they celebrate it four weeks before Christmas.

Azul, everyone!

On 27 November, 2003, the resignation of Mximo Carbonèlof the post of Seneschál became effective, thereby putting Deputy Seneschál Dixhêt Conâ in the Seneschál's office for the time being.

Per the Grand Compromise recently agreed-to by the MN, PC, Grey Congress, and ZPT, I will take power once more as PM as soon as possible. Unfortunately, the King has been out-of-town and therefore unreachable; it has therefore been impossible for me to phone him and have him swear me in once more as Seneschál. However, that will hopefully change on Monday, 1 December, on which day Ben and I will hopefully hook up and arrange the transfer of power.

Until then, Dixhêt Conâ is Seneschál, whether he knows it or not.

Many thanks, everyone!

God Save the King,

Gödafrieu Válcadác'h

Azul, all!

For the past week (since last Tuesday), I have been in New York City visiting my in-laws. The trip involved staying in a Hassidic hotel; talking (uncomfortably) to my wife's uncle, who greeted me by effusively praising Senator Byrd's recent rant (I detest Byrd); walking fruitlessly in search of the Brooklyn Public Library in order to check on the Witt and my email; taking my excited kids on the NY subway and elevated lines in Brooklyn; trying to get my finicky son to eat Chinese food; seeing Santa Claus at Macy's herald Square; and misplacing the cat who showed up on my deck a few years ago (and was the subject of a Benefactor News Service account). (The cat is fine, she's with my mother-in-law).

I got in last night at 1:30 am after a long trip involving mucho traffic on the Joisey Turnpike.

I see a lot has happened since I left. I tried very hard to access a PC to read my mail and the Witt, but was unable to do so. I will be catching up this morning on current events before I make any public comments, with the exception that I noticed that Marc Môisi renounced his prospectivehood and then came back. Marc - I'm glad you decided to stay, you are a good addition to Talossa.

Hi everyone,

Ummm...am I the only one to notice that we have not had a word from a certain citizen on anything that has happened recently in several days?

I would like to point out that the last anyone in the PC heard from him was a one sentence e-mail sent the day of the recent Throne Speech. It said, and I do NOT quote as I cannot remember the exact words - it's been nice knowing you. Something along those lines.

Now, I personally did not take that as a renunciation but, had it appeared here on Witt., my thinking is that it could have been construed as such. Chris is - as far as the new GNU is concerned, the current Proproganda Minister.

Anyway, let's hope that we do not lose Chris and that calmer heads prevail. With any luck, better times are ahead - in a Talossa that is hopefully NOT too small for Chris and Ben to both exist.

Are you sure of that, Metáiriâ? I was always under the impression that the line was "Woof woof woof! Hello, I'm Rex. Woof, woof, woof!"

I used this line myself at my wife's cousin's house on Thanksgiving Day - her son had a robot dog that my son wanted to play with.

Well, there are a couple scenes with the robot dog...but his name is definitely "Rags," not "Rex." I am not sure about the exact number of "woofs" whether its 2 or 3 in a row, but my memory says 2. Perhaps I'm wrong about that. But I have never heard him pronounce his name as "Rex."

Thanks, Chris!

I've been doing it wrong for years! AAARRGGHHH!

Oh now Mike, I think the best judge of that would not be you, necessarily, but... oh...wait a moment...you mean the name of the dog in Sleeper! Oh, um...yes, that's right...you are and have been WRONG!

That comes closest to my belief system, I guess.

Azul, everyone!

At 2:00pm Talossan (Central) Standard Time, I phoned His Majesty, the King, and was sworn-in as Talossa's Twenty-Ninth Seneschál having been preceded by the Rt. Hon. Dixhêt Lii Conâ who was preceded by the Rt. Hon. Mximo Carbonèlwho was preceded by myself. Having been asked by the King to form a government (and I hope he issues such an asking by way of Witt to make things all nice and neat), I shall do so ere the set of sun.

Many thanks go to Mximo Carbonèland Dixhêt Lii Conâ, both of whom served as Seneschál with grace and dignity in the face of the Montreal bus strike as well as some of the most-divisive times we have seen in Talossa. Many thanks also to those individuals who hammered-together the "Grand Compromise" which has made all of this possible. May the mistakes and mis-understandings on all sides which contributed to this crisis be learned-from and never repeated, and may we be a better nation and community because of it.

As I had originally planned, I shall resign the post of Seneschál on Wednesday, 31 December, 2003 at which point Deputy Seneschál Quedéir Castiglhá shall assume the PMship and the head of the governance of our glorious Nationette. The next month I shall spend in tidying things up and getting all ready for Quedéir's assent.

I hope that, years down the road, we will be able to and will indeed sit back and laugh at the Halloween Crisis which we have just gone through. And we will do just that.

God Save the King,

Gödafrieu Válcadác'h

Twenty-Ninth Seneschál del Regipäts Talossán

Hear hear!

I guess I can hang up the "Opposition Leader" title, since I fully support PM Válcadác'h!

Congratulations, Mr. PM.

BTW, does anyone has a list of the former PMs with the dates they were in office?

Cheers,

Marc Môisi, C.D.

Bravo! Hear hear!

Long live PM Válcadác'h! Long may he wave! Well... at least "ere" the end of the month.

It will take some getting used to thereafter...having a PM who never says "ere." :-)
